

DISCUSS MATTER FROM THE PULPIT

City Pastors take Up Corruption in the Council.

REV. MR. TILLERY CALLED

We Accepts Charge of Churches in Buckingham County—The Brotherhood Convention in Boston.
Church Services To-Day.

The alleged corruption in the City Council will be the theme for several sermons, which will be delivered from Richmond's pulpits to-day. At the Broad-street Memorial Baptist Church the Rev. C. P. Stealey will preach in the morning on "The Word Made Flesh" and at night the subject will be "Many are Called, But Few are Chosen." While his topics do not indicate it, Mr. Stealey will have a few words to say concerning the reported bribery. He stated yesterday that he would preach in Boston to the persons charged with corruption, but would not say what line of discussions of the question he would pursue.

Several others will follow Mr. Stealey's example. The announced subjects of two other ministers seem to have a bearing upon the matter in hand. Neither could be heard yesterday, but it is thought that they mean to say something. One is the Rev. L. B. Betty, who will preach at night at Clay-Street Methodist Church on "The Trained Servant and His Delicate Mission." The other is the Rev. Mr. Ashby Jones, pastor of the Leigh-Street Baptist Church, whose subject at the morning service will be "Betraying a Trust."

The Rev. J. R. Tillery, of this city, late of the Methodist Church, but now standing examination for admission into the Baptist ministry, has already received and accepted a call to four Baptist churches in Buckingham county.

The churches are Sharon, Goshen, Mulberry Grove and Mount Tabor, all in the James River Association. The former pastor of the field was the Rev. E. A. McFarland, who has recently gone to West Virginia. From this time forward Mr. Tillery will preach for the churches, though he will not take up his regular work as pastor before the middle of August.

The Seventieth Annual Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which will be held October 2-12 in Boston, promises to be one of the largest in the history of the organization. An excellent programme has been arranged, including among the speakers the Rev. Frederick Courtney, D. D., Bishop of New Scotland; Rev. Charles P. Anderson, D. D., Bishop of Kentucky; Rev. Henry Codman Potter, D. D., L. L. D., D. C. L., Bishop of New York; Rev. William Lawrence, D. D., L. L. D., Bishop of Massachusetts; Rev. Charles P. Anderson, D. D., Bishop of Chicago; Rev. Charles S. Olmsted, D. D., Bishop of Colorado; Rev. W. S. Rainford, D. D., of New York; Rev. Floyd W. Tompkins, D. D., of Philadelphia; Rev. Frank D. Moulton, of Chicago; Dr. Howard A. Kelly, of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore; Mr. John R. Mott, general secretary of the Student Christian Federation; Mr. James L. Gifford, of Chicago; Mr. H. D. W. English, of Pittsburgh, president of the Brotherhood, etc.

BAPTIST.
Dr. George Cooper will preach in the morning at the First Church on "Changing Money Into Friends."

Dr. W. R. L. Smith will preach in the morning at the Second Church. There will be no service at night.

The usual services will be held, morning and night, at Grace-Street by Dr. F. S. Gardner.

Dr. J. B. Hawthorne, of Grove-Avenue, will preach at the night service at Randolph-Street.

The Rev. Mr. Ashby Jones will preach in the morning at Leigh-Street on "Betraying a Trust." His subject at night will be "An Invitation to the Hungry."

Dr. John Hannon will preach, morning and night, at Union-Street.

The usual services will be held at St. James by the Rev. J. D. Longley.

Dr. W. W. Lear will preach at both services at Centenary. His subject at night will be "The Veiled Gospel."

The Rev. Mr. Ashby Jones will preach in the morning at Leigh-Street on "Betraying a Trust." His subject at night will be "An Invitation to the Hungry."

The Rev. C. C. Hersman, D. D., will preach in the morning at the Second Church. There will be no afternoon service.

To-day will close the first pastoral year of the Rev. R. E. Egleston, of the Third Presbyterian Church and he will preach at both services. During the year there have been sixty or seventy additions and $5,000 raised, a new pipe organ put in, and other improvements.

The pulpit of Grace-Street Presbyterian Church will be occupied this morning and at night by the Rev. W. W. Elwang, of Missouri, who will also conduct services Wednesday night.

At the Third Presbyterian Church the pastor, Rev. R. E. Egleston, will preach in the morning and evening Sunday. At night the last in a series of sermons on the Christian life will be preached. Subject, "The Christian in the Church."

Dr. J. Calvin Stewart will preach morning and night at the Church of the Covenant.

Dr. C. P. Williamson will preach in the morning at Seventh-Street.

There will be preaching at Third Christian Church to-day by the pastor, the Rev. P. A. Cave, who has been spending the past ten days with friends in Hagerstown.

The Rev. Henry Pearce Atkins will preach in the morning at West-End on "Fellowship With God." His subject in the evening will be "Belief of Unbelievers."

Mr. S. L. Thomas, secretary of the railway department of the Y. M. C. A., will preach at Marshall-Street Christian Church this morning at 11 o'clock. His subject will be "The Two Swords." At 8:30 P. M. Mr. W. Reginald Walker will speak at the same place on "Equipment for Service."

Dr. W. E. Evans will preach in the morning at Monumental. There will be no afternoon service.

The Rev. J. A. French, D. D., of Austin, Texas, a native of Richmond and
